FOREWORD

This is the third volume in the series of biennial supplements to the "Canadian Statistical Review." The present report supersedes previous issues which were published in December, 1953 and December, 1955.

These supplements were initiated in response to demands from businessmen, economists and statisticians for a readily available and continuous record of current economic indicators. They contain three important features: first, they present in the form of monthly averages, from 1926 or the earliest year for which data are available, to the last complete year, the annual record of the 1,600 statistical series carried in the regular monthly issues of the "Canadian Statistical Review". This permits users of the statistics to locate historical figures without endless thumbing through back issues or maintaining extensive records. Secondly, except in certain specified cases, the annual and monthly data are comparable throughout the period covered, and incorporate all revisions which have been made since the publication of the 1955 Supplement. Thirdly, these reference volumes provide monthly data for a longer period than can be shown in the monthly bulletins, thereby permitting more extensive analysis of seasonal trends.

The 1957 Supplement presents, for most series, monthly or quarterly data from January 1954 through December 1956 or for a longer period where more space was available as a result of the lack of historical figures. Since the publication of the last Supplement, both monthly and annual data have been revised in several cases, so that, in the case of monthly and quarterly data, the figures for 1952 and 1953 as shown in the 1955 volume are not always strictly comparable with those for later years contained in the present report. An examination of the statistics for 1954, shown in both publications, will reveal the extent of changes for those series which have been altered during the past two years. The annual data are comparable throughout except where specifically noted.

The 1957 Supplement contains a new section of seasonally adjusted series. The seventy-five series adjusted for seasonal variation which are published regularly in the monthly edition, are shown in this report for the period 1951-1956 on pages V to XII. It is hoped to expand gradually the number of these adjusted series to cover other sectors of the economy and additional components of existing series.

Designed to be used in conjunction with the latest monthly issue of the "Canadian Statistical Review", this volume presents the record of the more important economic indicators from 1926 to date. Through the means of weekly supplements, subscribers are assured of receiving most of the current figures as soon as they are forthcoming. These supplements are supplied without charge to regular subscribers to the "Canadian Statistical Review".

The present volume was prepared by the Business Statistics Section of the Research and Development Division of the Bureau.

INTRODUCTION

1. Annual data as at June 1st.
2. Seasonally adjusted at annual rates.
3. Manufacturing inventory owned by manufacturers, whether held at plant or not, at end of period.
4. Rough cords of 128 cu. ft.
5. Before 1945, relates to week in month of highest employment.
6. In urban areas of 5,000 population and over.
7. End of period, including personal savings deposits.
8. As at end of period.
9. Average of weekly rates.
10. Middle of month.

1. Annual data are for June. Prior to 1940, and since 1951, the annual figures given represent the "de facto" population of the United Kingdom. From 1940 to 1950 inclusive, estimates refer to the total population including members of the forces serving overseas and merchant seamen at sea. In 1951 the mid-year estimate on this basis was 50,537 thousand.
2. Annual data are for June. Prior to 1948, estimates excluded private indoor domestic servants and gainfully occupied persons over pensionable age, (men, 65; women, 60). Part-time women workers were counted as half units. The civil employment estimate for 1948 on the old basis was 19,064 thousand and the estimate of unemployed was 272 thousand.
3. At current market prices. Prior to 1946, data are unrevised and not strictly comparable to those of later years. Annual data are totals for the year; for 1954, 1955 and 1956 they are the sum of the four quarters.
4. This index replaces the former index of weekly wage rates based on June 30, 1947. It is based on the minimum or standard rates of wages fixed by voluntary collective agreement, or the minimum rates fixed by Wages Regulation Orders in certain trades. The rates used are those for manual wage-earners.
5. This index replaces the previous "interim" retail price index based on June 17, 1947. This previous index was only intended to "serve until such time as post-war conditions were sufficiently stable to permit of a large-scale household expenditure inquiry for the purpose of constructing an index on an up-to-date weighting basis". (Report of the British Ministry of Labour and National Service). The new index is designed to measure price changes over the "whole field of goods and services over which households distribute their expenditure", and is not designed, strictly speaking, as a "cost of living" index.
6. Replaces the previous wholesale price series based on 1938 equals 100. Includes all manufactured products other than food, fuel and tobacco.
7. As of 1952, data take account of the increased valuation of parcel post.
8. Output of building and civil engineering work, excluding the output of building operatives employed by private firms outside the building and civil engineering industries. Includes building by operatives employed by public authorities. Since the building industry is now defined according to the Standard Industrial Classification, the figures for 1955 and 1956 are not strictly comparable with previous totals. Value for first quarter of 1955 on the former basis was £276 million.

1. Including Armed Forces Overseas. Prior to 1941, annual figures are mid-year estimates; thereafter they are monthly averages.
2. Includes wage and salary disbursements and other labour income. Excludes employer contributions for social insurance.

Table 3 - concluded:

3. Includes shipments under the Mutual Security Program. Beginning with 1941, data include lend-lease exports. From 1947 onward army civilian supply shipments are included.
4. Annual figures are averages of the unadjusted data.
5. At book value. Annual data are the unadjusted December figures for each year.
6. Revised series beginning in 1948; not completely comparable with earlier years.
7. Production and related workers who worked during and received pay for the pay period ending nearest the 15th of the month. Covers both full-time and part-time employees, but not supervisory employees.
8. Data for 1939 and later years are not strictly comparable with earlier years.
9. Data for 1951 and subsequent years not comparable with those of earlier years. In 1951, the monthly average on the old basis was 12,748.
10. As at Wednesday, nearest end of month. Coverage increased in 1952.
11. Standard and Poor's Corporation Index broadened in coverage and recomputed on the base 1941-43=10.

Note. For the period 1926-1943 data for births and deaths are by place of occurrence. Since 1944 the data are on the basis of residence. Monthly data are by month of occurrence. Marriages are classified by place of occurrence throughout.

1. National annual and monthly data for population, births, marriages and deaths include Yukon and the Northwest Territories. Although Newfoundland data on population, births, marriages and deaths are shown separately for the entire period, they are included in the Canada totals only since 1949.
2. Annual estimates are as of June 1st.
3. Exclusive of stillbirths. Annual data are monthly averages.
4. Immigrant admissions by country of last permanent residence. Annual and quarterly figures are totals for the period.
5. Annual data are monthly averages.

Note. Throughout this table, Newfoundland is included as of 1949. In 1949, the last year before accession, Newfoundland's Gross National Product was about $175 million.

1. Accrued Net Income of Farm Operators from Farm Production. This item includes the undistributed earnings of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers and the Canadian Wheat Board and an inventory valuation adjustment for grain in these channels, on a calendar year basis. The seasonally adjusted data include an arbitrary smoothing of crop production and standard seasonal adjustments for livestock items. Because of the arbitrary elements, too precise an interpretation should not be given the seasonally adjusted figures of accrued net income of farm operators.
2. Net Income of Non-farm Unincorporated Business. This item includes net income of independent professional practitioners.
3. Includes outlay on new durable assets such as building and highway construction by governments other than government business enter-

INTRODUCTION - Concluded

- prises. Also includes U.N.R.R.A., Mutual Aid and Military Relief, and the change in inventories of government commodity agencies.
- Includes capital expenditures by private and government business enterprises, private non-commercial institutions and outlays on new residential construction by individuals.
  - Excludes U.N.R.R.A., Mutual Aid and Military Relief.
  - Beginning in 1950, columns will not cross-add due to the omission of an adjusting entry arising from the mechanical conversion of constant dollar data from a 1949 base to a 1935-39 base.
  - This item differs from column 4 on pages 16 and 18 in that it excludes undistributed earnings (and the inventory valuation adjustment) of the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers and the Canadian Wheat Board.

LABOUR

Note. These estimates are derived from a sample survey and are subject to sampling error. In general the smaller the estimate the larger is the relative sampling error. Data include Newfoundland in estimates from 1950, and exclude residents of the Yukon and Northwest Territories, members of the armed services, Indians on reservations and inmates of institutions.

Prior to 1946, estimates are given by years as of June 1st. From 1946 to 1952, annual figures are averages of quarterly surveys.

From 1953 to 1956, annual figures are averages of monthly surveys.

- Due to flood conditions, estimates for Manitoba for June, 1950, were based on previous experience rather than direct survey.

FUEL AND POWER

Note. Newfoundland is included as of 1949.

Monthly totals are not equivalent to annual data for several reasons. First, for purposes of the annual surveys, results of which have been published in the "Central

Electric Stations" annual reports, generating stations were allowed to file returns for their fiscal years, which were not calendar years in all cases. The annual series, however, are comparable for the period covered. Secondly, the monthly figures did not include statistics for the smaller stations

FUEL AND POWER - Concluded

and, prior to January 1955, did not cover output in the Yukon and Northwest Territories. Since January 1955, however, monthly data for the Yukon and the Northwest Territories are included in the Canada production and consumption totals. Annual production and consumption data for these territories are included in the Canada totals throughout, and in the British Columbia consumption total.

The annual series cover all stations generating power for sale and/or purchasing for resale. Thirdly, the annual series exclude all power generated for own use by reporting establishments. For long-term comparability, the monthly series retain the West Kootenay plants which were dropped from the annual survey in 1947. The entire output of these plants was taken over by the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. and is reported annually under the Non-Ferrous Metal Smelting and Refining Industry.

The annual surveys do not provide data on primary and secondary power. Secondary production in the annual section of the table is taken from the monthly surveys, while primary production is a residual figure obtained by deducting the secondary production figure from the annual output total.

2. As of April, 1949, Newfoundland data are included.
3. Monthly import data and 1956 annual data are based upon imported coal actually landed, while annual data down to 1955 represent the amounts cleared from customs ports.
4. Annual computation to 1955 involves considerable adjustments in production and external trade as described on page 19 of the "Coal Mining Report" for 1955.

Note. In March, 1955, the method of reporting certain categories of refining operations was altered. However, the continuity of the series have been maintained, so far as possible.

1. Prior to 1940 data refer to products made for sale.
2. For some years prior to 1940 includes a small amount of aviation gasoline.
3. Prior to 1937, series represents production for sale of all fuel oils including stove oil. Beginning with 1937, stove oil is excluded. In 1937, the monthly average (including stove oil) comparable to previous years, was 1,165 thousand barrels.
4. Prior to 1940, series used represent apparent domestic consumption. Data were computed from production, imports, exports and stocks at refineries. From 1940 to March 1955, data exclude a certain amount of imported fuels.
5. Prior to 1946, fuel oil data include stove oil; stove oil is excluded since 1946. Apparent sales of light fuel oils including stove oil in 1946 (comparable to previous years) is estimated at 1,045 thousand barrels.
6. Prior to 1946 series includes stove oil. In 1946, stocks of light fuel oils including stove oil are estimated at 3,198 thousand barrels.

MANUFACTURING

Table 26

1. In industries where long-term contracts involve the receipt of progress payments, all such payments are treated as sales. The series represent an estimated projection, on a monthly basis, of the latest available Census of Industry values.
2. Total new orders received during the period, at estimated selling values. The series cover total new orders, net of cancellations, regardless of whether the orders will be filled from stock or as a result of activity during the same month (and also be reported as shipments in the month received) or whether they will be added to existing backlogs.
3. Estimated total unfilled orders on books at end of month, irrespective of work done on them or of stocks from which they can be filled, but less progress receipts in industries working on long term contracts. Sales in these industries include progress receipts. Estimates are derived by inflating the monthly reported values to total for each industry on the basis of the estimated year-end total values for each industry as obtained from annual surveys.
4. Manufacturing inventory owned by manufacturers, whether held at plant or not, at end of period.

CONSTRUCTION

*Construction of dwelling units.

Note. These data are the result of a nation-wide survey carried out each month by the Bureau of Statistics with the co-operation of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. All Metropolitan Areas and Urban Centres with a population of 5,000 or more are enumerated completely. The remainder of the country is covered on a sample basis. In June, 1955, the number of sample areas was increased from approximately 400 to nearly 800. Newfoundland is included as from 1950.

Beginning with January, 1952, 100 per cent coverage by the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation was extended to those urban centres which had reached populations of 5,000 or more according to the 1951 Census. In addition, the boundaries of the Metropolitan Areas have been altered to agree with the 1951 Census Metropolitan Areas.

1. Generally the municipalities for which data are shown were selected as being leaders in the amount of permits issued during the period 1926-1946. Annual statistics for 58 municipalities are available historically in the Canada Year Book. Monthly reports on the subject were discontinued in December 1946. All data down to 1949 represent building permits within the actual limits of these cities, as does the series giving the total for 58 municipalities throughout the period covered. Data for the individual cities for subsequent years and months cover approximately the metropolitan areas of the cities concerned according to the 1951 Decennial Census definitions except in the cases of Port Arthur, Fort William, Regina and Saskatoon, where the data still refer to the city proper. For the year 1949, both sets of data are given to maintain comparability.

Table 37 — Concluded

2. The coverage was extended to 507 municipalities in 1948, later to 821, and as of 1956 stands at 901. Minor revisions are still required in the table, due to the non-receipt of returns from a few small places. No account is taken of the building activity outside of registration areas. Actual operations normally follow the granting of permits, but a number of projects are not undertaken or abandoned. The amount depends on the statement of the applicant and considerable change may develop before the completion of the operation.
3. As of January 1950, Newfoundland is included.

1. Monthly totals are not equivalent to annual data prior to 1956, due to receipt of additional or more comprehensive statistics which cannot be allocated by months.
2. Newfoundland included as of 1949 for clay products, as of 1950 for iron and steel products and as of 1952 for gypsum products.
3. Includes shingle-type siding.

5. See Note 1, Table 32.
6. Includes planks and boards, flooring and square timber.
7. Prior to 1944 data represent factory sales.
8. Monthly data for concrete brick and blocks and monthly and annual data for cement pipe and tile cover production of firms which normally account for 85 per cent of the total Canadian output of concrete products.
9. Prior to 1946, annual data represent hardwall plaster only, while later figures include other gypsum plasters. Average monthly production of hardwall plaster only in 1947, (comparable to previous years) was 10.0 thousand tons.
10. Monthly data represent sales of firms which normally account for 96 per cent of total production for Canada.

Table 48A

Note. From 1951 the quarterly and annual data in this table have been revised, using 1951 Census benchmarks as the computational base. The average for 1951 is given on both the revised and unrevised footing. Annual data prior to 1951 are on the unrevised basis. Sales data for 1956 are subject to revision and are therefore not comparable with the revised data for total sales and for certain kinds of businesses as shown in Table 46.

The table does not include cash personal loans of finance companies, or of trust and loan companies, second mortgage loans on residential real estate and loans of some other financial institutions for which comparable data are not available.

1. Conditional sale agreements held in connection with the financing of retail purchases of consumers' goods.
2. Companies licensed under the Small Loans Act. Cash loans have no conditional sales contract but are usually repaid in instalments.
3. Excluded from the above tabulation are charge accounts and instalment credit of certain categories of dealers whose credit is extended mainly to farmers and other businesses rather than to consumers. Instalment credit includes conditional sales agreements only.

Note. The indexes prior to 1951 do not include Newfoundland. The sample on which they were based was substantially although not exactly comparable to the later sample upon which the dollar sales estimates since 1951 are based. The indexes are therefore being shown to give a general impression of the trend.

1. Data covers wholesalers proper only, i.e. those wholesalers buying and selling on their own account, taking title to the goods and generally performing the functions of warehousing and delivering.

EXTERNAL TRADE

Table 50

Note. Commencing with April, 1949, the Trade of Canada includes that of Newfoundland.

1. Does not include re-exports.
2. These price and volume indexes are considered reasonably accurate for the periods 1926-40 and 1946-56. They are not given for the period 1941-45 since their validity is dubious. The composition of Canada's trade was sharply different from its peace-time pattern in these years, and since no reliable price indicators could be obtained for the bulk of the war materials recorded in the trade statistics, the price indexes could not be adapted to reflect this change in the composition of trade.
3. Includes pigs, ingots, blooms and billets, castings and forgings and rolling mill products.

1. Official holdings of gold and U.S. dollars are given as of end of year or quarter.
2. The trade figures have been adjusted to conform to balance of payments definitions of the international exchange of commodities. Non-commercial items are deducted from trade statistics, as are items such as purchases by tourists which are entered elsewhere in the current account. An important adjustment during the war and again since 1950 arises from the abnormal movements of commodities on government account; payments data were substituted for the physical movement of commodities in order, among other things, to reflect more closely the proper timing and valuation of these transactions.
3. Balance also reflects all other current transactions with the exception of wartime grants and mutual aid which are included in current receipts but excluded from current payments as follows:

Million dollars
1942 — 1,002	1945 — 858
1943 — 518	1946 — 97
1944 — 960

4. Net transfers for foreign direct investment in Canadian enterprises; from 1927 to 1939 also includes Canadian direct investment abroad.

TRANSPORTATION

Note. Monthly figures are not necessarily equivalent to annual data due to the receipt of additional statistics which cannot be allocated by months.

1. Prior to 1941 statistics are for shipping years ending March 31.
2. Since 1941, data include Great Lakes shipping between United States and Canadian inland ports.
3. Annual data are averages of nine months.
4. Includes Canadian territorial operations of foreign carriers. As from 1947, civil aviation data have been revised to include C.P.A. and T.C.A. Overseas Services, and, in the case of revenue goods ton miles, to exclude goods ton miles of charter and contract services. These data which represent unit toll traffic are therefore not strictly comparable with those for earlier years.

Note. Newfoundland is included as of 1949.

1. On the first page of this table the annual statistics down to 1955 (on the former accounting basis) embrace all railways. The monthly averages for 1955 (on the altered accounting basis) and 1956, and all monthly figures, refer to railways with annual operating revenues of $500,000 or over. While the monthly averages for 1955 (revised basis) and 1956 are on the same footing as the monthly figures, they differ slightly due to revisions which cannot be allocated by months.
2. As of January 1955 the Canadian Pacific, Canadian National, and Quebec North Shore and Labrador Railways adopted the "Uniform Classification of Accounts for Common Carriers by Railway" and the Pacific Great Eastern Railway later put its accounts for 1955 and 1956 on this basis. Through 1955 and 1956 the other railways remained on the previous accounting system. The first 1955 monthly averages, for columns 1 to 5, therefore show all railways, using the old accounting system, and the second 1955 monthly averages show all railways with annual operating revenues of $500,000 and over, four of which reported revenues and expenditures according to the "Uniform Classification of Accounts" and the remainder

- according to the previous system. This also applies to the 1956 monthly averages and to the last 24 monthly totals. Monthly figures for 1954 are restricted to railways mainly with operating revenues of over $500,000 annually, on the old accounting basis.
3. Under the old accounting system, operating income equalled operating revenues less operating expenses adjusted for tax accruals and rent of equipment and joint facilities. Operating income under the former system was thus considerably less than operating revenue less operating expenses. Under the "Uniform Classification of Accounts", operating income equals operating revenue less operating expenses, since taxes and rents now form part of operating expenses. It followed that under the procedure used for 1955 and 1956, when the returns for the two groups of railways on the two systems had to be added together, operating income was still somewhat less than operating revenues less operating expenses.
  4. The monthly averages down to 1955 on the old accounting basis, both for "All Railways" revenues and for C.P. and C.N. revenues, include all water line revenues in the total revenue column, and also water line freight and water line passenger revenues in the appropriate columns. For the 1954 monthly figures "water line" revenues are included in total railway operating revenues, but are excluded from "freight" and "passenger" revenues. Under the new "Uniform Classification", water line revenues are excluded altogether from "railway operating" revenues. It follows that, for the last two monthly averages and the last 24 months of the table, total revenues include the water line revenues of the railways on the old accounting basis only, but "freight" and "passenger" revenues include no "water line" revenues. To give a general idea of the amounts involved, in 1954 "water line" revenues (all railways) were $5,808,000. In 1955 the water line revenues of "other" railways not yet on the "Uniform Classification" totalled $2,495,000.
  5. The slight difference in "revenue freight carried" totals between the 1955 "old basis" and "new basis" averages is due to the exclusion of small railways from the latter.

FINANCE

Table 57

1. Foreign exchange and foreign securities. Includes gold for following year-ends: 1935, 180.5; 1936, 179.4; 1937, 179.7; 1938, 185.9; 1939, 225.7.
2. Industrial Development Bank capital stock, bonds and debentures.
3. Bank premises and all other assets.
4. Capital, rest fund and all other liabilities.
5. On December 31, 1956, the basis for the valuation of securities held by the Bank of Canada was changed from "not exceeding market values" to amortized values, and for this reason figures for December 31, 1956, are not comparable with those for earlier dates.

Table 58

Note. The classification of chartered bank assets and liabilities was revised by the Bank Act of 1954. Figures for the end of July 1954 are on the new basis and, except for "Other Loans in Canada", (see footnote 9) adjustments have been made to put figures for earlier dates on a comparable basis. Statistics of Newfoundland branches are included as Canadian from April, 1949.

1. Total Cash Reserves include Bank of Canada deposits and Bank of Canada notes. Prior to July, 1954, all figures in this section are daily averages. From July 1954, Bank of Canada deposits are averages of the juridical days in the month shown while Bank of Canada notes and Canadian dollar deposit liabilities are averages of the four consecutive Wednesdays ending with the second last Wednesday in the previous month.
2. From July 1954 the figures are not adjusted for items in transit and are not strictly comparable with the figures in this section for earlier periods.
3. Prior to July 1st, 1954, the statutory minimum requirement was 5 per cent for each day; since that date it has been a monthly average of 8 per cent calculated as described in footnote 1.
4. Mainly deposits of foreign banks.
5. Capital, rest fund and undivided profits as at the latest fiscal year-end.
6. Including issues payable in foreign currency.
7. Includes securities guaranteed by provincial governments. Securities purchased direct from issuer with a term of less than one year at time of issue are classified as loans.
8. Excluding Canadian day-to-day loans.
9. Figures for June 30, 1954 and later are not adjusted for items in transit and are not strictly comparable with those for earlier dates. The figure for June 30, 1954, after adjustment for items in transit, was $3,789 million. Includes loans to grain dealers and exporters, loans to finance the purchase of Canada Savings Bonds at time of issue and all other loans in Canada.

Table 62A

Note. This series gives total new settled-for ordinary insurance sales in Canada, exclusive of revivals, increases, dividend additions, reinsurance acquired and pension bonds without insurance. Totals are estimates projected from the sales reported by 31 companies operating in Canada, representing 87 per cent of new ordinary insurance sales.

The Canada totals by months for 1954, 1955 and 1956 do not correspond to the sum of the provincial totals as revisions applied to the national total are not yet available for the provinces by months. Canada annual totals for all years down to and including 1955 correspond to the sum of the provincial totals. The provincial annual figures for 1954 and 1955 do not therefore correspond exactly to the average of the monthly totals.

Canada totals throughout are believed to be consistent although the 1956 data are still preliminary. Provincial monthly totals for 1955 and 1956, however, are not strictly comparable either with each other or with previous years.

Note. For the years before 1944, the estimates are based on a special study made by the Department of National Revenue. Annual data for the years 1944 to 1954 are based on the Department of National Revenue publication "Taxation Statistics". Quarterly data from a selected sample of corporations are used to allocate the annual figures for 1952-1954 by quarters and to project these quarterly totals to 1955 and 1956.

The definition of profits before taxes is based mainly on the accounting definitions used by corporations. However, depletion charges and charitable donations are added back to net profits while Canadian dividends received are excluded from profits in order to avoid duplication. The term "profits" as used here means the total profits of all companies earning profits less the losses of all companies incurring losses.

The lower section, including the past two years and all monthly data, excludes the failures of individuals who did not operate businesses as such. The year 1955 is given on both bases.

1. Quarterly data for the last five columns are monthly averages.
2. In the Bankruptcy Act of 1949, provision is made for proposals from insolvent persons. Since July 1950, agreements made under this method are not included with the statistics of bankruptcies. Liabilities of insolvent persons making proposals are not available.
